McAuliffe-Shepard Discovery Center to Host 2009 Babe Ruth Softball 16U World Series Banquet

CONCORD, NH – This year, the first 2009 Babe Ruth Softball 16U World Series will take place in Concord. The series is dedicated to all volunteers of the Concord Babe Ruth League, past and present. As part of the series a “Banquet of Champions” will be held. This first “Banquet of Champions” will be hosted at the McAuliffe-Shepard Discovery Center the evening of August 7, 2009.

The banquet is a kick-off celebration for participants and their families of the 2009 Babe Ruth Softball 16U World Series, to be held August 8th through 15th. The Series will take place on the Doane Diamond at Memorial Field in Concord, NH.

A limited quantity of family passes for the weeklong World Series is now available at the McAuliffe-Shepard Discovery Center. Passes are $50 and will admit up to two adults and all dependent children under the age of 18, living in the same household. For tickets to the “Banquet of Champions”, contact Heather Mann at rs2hmann@hotmail.com.

The new McAuliffe-Shepard Discovery Center is a lively science center, featuring 21st century interactive exhibits on aviation, astronomy, and Earth and space sciences, a state-of-the-art planetarium, and a variety of science and engineering programs.

The engaging, robust educational programs are geared towards families, teens, seniors, students, community groups, and lifelong learners. For a full schedule of programming, visit www.starhop.com.
